With an exceptional street scope this design offers everything a modern family requires for their day to day life.

At its heart, a central kitchen with island bench connects effortlessly to the open-plan living and dining. Large glass doors open onto the under-roof alfresco, making indoor-outdoor entertaining a breeze all year round.

The home features four well-appointed bedrooms, including a private master suite with ensuite and walk-in robe. A dedicated activities room offers a flexible space for play, study, or relaxation. Practical touches—such as a large laundry, mudroom, powder room, and a spacious main bath-room—make everyday life more organised and enjoyable.

Blending timeless charm with smart, functional spaces, the Willow 21 is a home where comfort, style, and practicality come together beautifully
